

Brian O Mahony

Brian is the Chief Executive of the Irish Haemophilia Society. He represents the Society on the statutory National Haemophilia Council and he is the Vice Chair of the Haemophilia Product Selection and Monitoring Advisory Board. Brian leads the organisation, prepares policies and plans for the organisation and oversees the implementation of the strategic plan. Brian also communicates with the Department of Health, Health Service Executive and various other stakeholders. Brian previously served as Chair of the Irish Haemophilia Society for 17 years from 1987 to 2003, as President of the World Federation of Hemophilia (WFH) for 10 years from 1994 to 2004 and as President of the European Haemophilia Consortium from 2011 to 2019.