

CURRICULUM VITAE

HANS-HERMANN BRACKMANN, MD
ACADEMIC DIRECTOR, retired
HEMOPHILIA CENTER
INSTITUT FOR EXPERIMENTAL HEMATOLOGY
AND TRANSFUSIONMEDICINE
UNIVERSITY OF BONN
(DIRECTOR): PROF. J. Oldenburg, MD

- born, 5th of SEPT. 1941, Frankfurt/M.
- married with Christine, nee Schimmelbusch, three children,
- school attendance at Frankfurt/M, A-level: Febr.1963;
- 1963 at University of Bonn, study of Biology,
- 1964 at University of Bonn, study of Medicine,
- 1970 State examination
- Febr. 1971 responsible for the Hemophilia Department at the above mentioned Institut;
- 1973 doctor's degree at the University;
appointment to 'Academic Council' at the University by the Ministry of Science of the State of Northern Rhine Westfalia (NRW) for the responsibility of the Hemophilia Center at the above mentioned Institut;
- 1973 - 1976 development of a prophylactic treatment program for Hemophiliacs and the Immune Tolerance Treatment (Bonn protocol) for patients with an inhibitor;
- 1980 awarded the "Alexander Schmidt Preis" of the former
'Deutsche Arbeitsgemeinschaft für Blutgerinnungsforschung (today: GTH = Gesellschaft für Thrombose und Hämostaseforschung);
at the annual meeting in Vienna for the successful Immune Tolerance Treatment in hemophilia patients with inhibitors;
organization of the "1st International Hemophilia Conference and 14th World Federation of Hemophilia
General Assembly", 3rd - 7th of Oct., Bonn; dedicated as a member of the 'Task Force I', by the World Federation;
- 1983 appointment to 'Academic Director' at the University by the Ministry of Science of the State of Northern Rhine Westfalia (NRW);
- 1988 - a grant by the Ministry of Health for "Psychological aspects in HIV-infected patients with hemophilia and their relatives"
- 1990 Financial supply of the research work: "Analyses of Factor VIII gene defects in hemophilia A patients", by a grant of the DFG (Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft = German community for research)
- 1992 a grant (DFG) for "Construction of a more stabilized factor VIII protein
- 1992 awarded "Prix International de l' Association Francaise des Hemophiles" during the XX. Congress of the World Federation of Hemophilia, Athens.
- 1995 Member of the Curatorium of the "Johann-Lukas-Schönlein" Award
- 1996 "Johann-Lukas-Schönlein" Award of the board of trustees of the "Johann-Lukas-Schönlein Foundation" for "New Knowledge in Diagnostik and Therapy in Hemophilia" together with Dr. Schwaab (Bonn), Dr. Poller (Würzburg) and Dr. Oldenburg (Würzburg).

- 1997 Member of the Editorial Board of the Hemophilia Forum
- 1994 and 1999 Cochairman, 1997 and 2001 Chairman of the International workshop on "Immune Tolerance in Haemophilia and the Treatment of Haemophiliacs with an Inhibitor" (Rom, Bonn, Palermo, Bonn)
- 1999 Winner of the "Twinning Award" of the World Federation of Hemophilia together with Dr. Pavlova (Plovdiv, Bulgaria)
- 1999 a grant by the German Humangenomproject for "Genotype / Phenotype correlation in hemophilia A" together with the Co-applicants Dr. Schwaab (Bonn), Dr. Oldenburg (Würzburg), Dr. Graw and Dr. Schramm (München)
- 1976 - 2000 responsible for 21 clinical trials
- 2005 Award, "Wolfgang Paul Medal" of the University of Bonn for the organization and development of the Haemophilia Center at the University and the extraordinary scientific achievement in the development of successful treatment concepts for patients with haemophilia
- Sept. 2005 retired
- 2006 – 2013 DMC-member of 3 different international clinical trials
- 20016 Winner of the 'Twinning Award 2015' together with Prof. J. Oldenburg, Dr. A. Pavlova (Bonn) and Prof. A. caleva (Varna, Bulgaria)

Hans-Hermann Brackmann, M.D.
Academic Director, retired
Haemophilia Center Bonn
University Clinic
Elisabethstr. 14
53177 Bonn, Germany
Mobile: +49 (171) 3178853
e-mail: h.h.brackmann@t-online.de

Bonn, June 2018